No one has done more than Father Mc Manus to keep the U.S. Congress on track regarding justice and peace in Ireland. Indeed, I believe historians will record that no one since John Devoy (1842-1928) has done more to organize American pressure for justice in Ireland.

— Former Congressman Ben Gilman (R-NY)
Chairman of the House International Relations Committee

[Fr. Mc Manus] stood out against powerful forces in a fight for justice and fairness. I didn't always agree with the causes he supported but I admired his persistence, his courage, his relentlessness. And admiration that one person, almost alone, could make such impact on public policy in the United States.

— Noted journalist and broadcaster, Vincent Browne, Dublin

Fr. Mc Manus, from his Capitol Hill office, has been a prominent and influential figure in the quest for progress and peace with justice in Northern Ireland. His has been a unique role. Long may it continue.

— Ray O'Hanlon, Editor, The Irish Echo, New York
